

Open Innovation Contest Privacy Statement

NTT DATA (“NTT DATA”, “we”, “us” or “our”) will collect and use your personal data, including your name, photograph, company name, position, career profile, address and e-mail address for NTT DATA’s Open Innovation Contest (“The Innovation Contest”) as well as to comply with the Japanese Act on the Protection of Personal Information (the “APPI”) and NTT DATA’s Privacy Statement. By reading and manifesting your intention to consent to this Open Innovation Contest Privacy Statement by applying to or participating in the Innovation Contest, you consent to our use and disclosure of your personal data and agree that we may collect, use and transfer your personal data in accordance therewith.

NTT DATA’s Privacy Statement is available at
<https://www.nttdata.com/global/en/privacy-statement>

Provision of your personal data is voluntary, but if you do not provide your personal data, or if you subsequently withdraw your consent to us continuing to use your personal data, you may not be able to apply for or participate in the Innovation Contest. We rely on your consent as the basis for its continued processing of your personal data.

Personal data stored and processed by us for the Innovation Contest will only be used for the purpose of: (i) contacting you, (ii) responding to your questions, (iii) notifying you of selection results and (iv) publishing selection results for the Innovation Contest. Your personal data will be deleted no later than three years after completion of the selection process unless we need to keep your personal data for longer due to legal or regulatory reasons.

We outsource the handling of your personal data to its affiliates and partners who assist us in providing the Innovation Contest (“Affiliates and Partners”). Your personal data will not be published or shared with third parties other than Affiliates and Partners, except for the publication of limited personal data in selection results, and except where we are legally required to do so.

The Innovation Contest will be held in many countries and is organized by NTT DATA from Japan. By providing your personal data to us, you acknowledge your personal data is transferred to NTT DATA in Japan. In addition, as NTT DATA is a global company, your personal data may also be transferred outside Japan to Affiliates and Partners. Japanese data protection law may not be as strict as the data protection laws of your country, and the other countries to which your data may be transferred may not have data protection laws as strict as those of Japan and/or your country. Even so, in accordance with the APPI and the NTT DATA's Privacy Statement, we shall confirm that its Affiliates and Partners have established the internal systems necessary to keep the measures to protect your personal data, and shall properly supervise Affiliates and Partners by way of an data transfer agreement or other appropriate means.

If you wish to make a complaint about our handling of your personal data or possible breach of privacy laws, to see a copy of, or correct, the personal data that we hold about you or to withdraw your consent to our continued processing of your personal data, please contact us at: privacy@am.nttdata.co.jp. We can also provide you with details of competent data protection authorities.
